Things That Light

Camp Barton: Saturday, May 6th

See all Camp Barton has to offer, experience the great outdoors and of course have fun!

- Who Cub Scouts of all ranks are invited to attend with their parents/guardians and family. Calling all Webelos and AOLs: We will be offering dens for older Cubs with alternative activities more suited to the older Pack Members. Parents are welcome, but will not be required as experienced Scouters will lead the dens.
- What Activities may include Archery, BB shooting, wall climbing, light-themed games, STEM-based projects, den challenges and many more surprises!
- When Registration starts at 8:00 am on Saturday, May 6th
Program begins promptly at 8:45 am on Saturday and ends after campfire. Lunch and dinner are included. Overnight camping is encouraged with your own equipment. Sunday breakfast is NOT included.
- Where Camp Barton
9640 South Frontenac Rd, Trumansburg, NY 14886
- How Register online at: <https://scoutingevent.com/368-368thingshatligh>
Registration categories will be by age. If your older Scout wants to participate with the younger dens, please register them with the K-3 category. Cost will be $25 per youth (Cub Scouts and siblings 5 years and older), $20 for adults, $5 for siblings aged 2-4. Siblings under 2 come free. Registration and payment is due by Pack by end of day on Friday, April 29th.

ALL FOOD ALLERGIES AND DIETARY RESTRICTIONS SHOULD BE NOTED ALONG WITH REGISTRATIONS

Please bring uniform (T shirt or uniform shirt) to wear through the day, a water bottle, rain jacket, sturdy closed-toe shoes, and a sense of fun! Please contact Shannon.Wheeler@scouting.org with questions. Medical Forms with Parts A & B filled out are required for all participants (including all adults and family members) and should be handed in to the unit leader for the event at registration.
